(Agenda Item No 6)

Councillor A. Donnelly - Proactively Working to encourage more Women to enter and stay in Councillor roles - AI108606

The motion in the name of Councillor A. Donnelly was PROPOSED by Councillor A. Donnelly and SECONDED by Councillor J. Walsh.

“That this Strategic Policy Committee prepares for the 2029 Local Elections by engaging with "Women for Election", "See Her Elected" or a similar organisation to design and deliver a tailored training programme for women who wish to run in the 2029 Elections. Dun Laoghaire/Rathdown County Council ran a campaign for the 2024 local elections in collaboration with Women for Election. We could use this as a model if we wish.”

Report:

The Council has secured funding to develop an appropriate programme under the category: 'Increase Diversity & Participation of Women in Local Government'. Initial engagement has already taken place with Women for Election to explore potential approaches and what such an initiative might involve. This work is being progressed as a joint endeavour between the Corporate and Community directorates, and it is expected that it will get underway shortly in collaboration with Women for Election.

While it is anticipated that this initiative may evolve in the direction of a tailored training programme or campaign aimed at women who may wish to run in the 2029 Local Elections, it would be premature at this stage to define the precise scope or format of the programme. Further development work will be required before any final proposals are brought forward”

Following discussion, the report was ACCEPTED.

SPCCSC 12/26

(Agenda Item No 7)

Councillor J. Walsh - Review of Policy on Community Activities Funding - AI108738

The motion in the name of Councillor J. Walsh was PROPOSED by Councillor J. Walsh and SECONDED by Councillor A. Donnelly.

“That the Chief Executive review the recent decision in relation to Community Activities funding Scheme to restrict payment to tutors to 50% of an overall grant allocation under Community Activities funding annually, as this is causing significant adverse implications for community groups.”

Report:

Following approval by Council in late 2025, the revised scheme has been in operation since January 2026. The Council recognises that community groups, require time to become familiar with the updated criteria and to adjust how activities are planned, costed, and delivered within the new parameters.

It is recognised also that any change of this nature can give rise to challenges for community groups, particularly where there is strong demand for programme-based activities that rely heavily on qualified tutors and facilitators. As discussed with Members, demand for Community Activities remains exceptionally high across the county, with over 930 groups eligible to apply annually. In this context, it is necessary to apply consistent criteria countywide to ensure that limited funding resources can be distributed equitably and transparently, and that the greatest possible number of groups across Fingal can continue to be supported.

The cap on tutor payments was introduced to encourage a balanced use of funding, ensuring that grants also contribute towards essential non-pay costs such as equipment, materials, venue hire, insurance, accessibility supports and participation expenses. This approach is intended to support the sustainability and inclusiveness of community activities, while reducing the risk that funding disproportionately benefits a smaller number of tutor intensive projects at the expense of broader community participation.

The Community Development office is engaging with groups to provide practical guidance on budgeting, programme design, and alternative funding options, and will work with area-based staff to support groups in adapting to the revised scheme.

The impact of the changes to the operation of the CAF scheme is under review and feedback from community groups, elected members, SPC members will continue to inform this process.

With the scheme having been recommended by this SPC and agreed by Full Council, any changes arising from this process will need to be channelled through the same fora for consideration. It is envisaged that a presentation will be made to this SPC on the scheme review before year end”

The meeting was advised that as set out in the report that the scheme is under review in terms of some revisions and these revisions would be presented to this Strategic Policy Committee for discussion later in 2026.

Following discussion, the Motion was AGREED.

The Meeting concluded at 5.45pm.

Gender Equality Inclusion	The Community Development and Inclusion Office have developed a staff resource which was promoted with FCC staff during LGBTQIA+ Pride month. The CDI office also hosted an information stand for staff in the Swords and Blanchardstown office with additional information and print resources available which was intended to celebrate diversity and continue building an inclusive workplace where everyone feels respected, safe, and valued.

Creative Ireland Programme	Magic of Stories Festival Creative Fingal is delighted to continue supporting The Magic of Stories Festival in collaboration with Fingal Libraries. The hugely popular children's event is celebrating a 5th year in Swords Castle on 26th September with a day of author and illustrator events, street theatre, creative workshops, music, children's entertainment, and lots more. The Magic of Stories started with one great idea that has grown bigger and better over five years and continues to engage young readers with Irish children's literature. This year, we are introducing our new mascot, Dany the Dragon, and her pals - book-loving dragons bringing magic to Swords Castle. Dany was designed by author and illustrator Alan Nolan, also the creator of the very popular Magic of Stories activity book, which allows young people to get involved in the magic before the festival begins. Culture Night Fingal Libraries are delighted to present an exciting programme of free cultural events across several libraries on Culture Night, Friday 18th September. Venues include Swords Library, Skerries Library, Blanchardstown Library, Balbriggan Library, Malahide Library and Local Studies and Archives. The programme includes music from the Blanchardstown Brass Band, the Blanchardstown Library Singing

	Circle, the Balbriggan Gospel Choir, and the Bits and Bobs Orchestra Creative Health and Wellbeing in the Community Creative Fingal's Health and Wellbeing in the Community Scheme 2026–2028 projects are both well underway. Weaving Worlds: Creative Fashion Upcycling Across Borders and Ages brings together an intergenerational group from Fingal comprising Fingal's Older People Council and a local youth group along with a similar group from Northern Ireland. Participants will collaborate on fashion design and upcycling, transforming old garments into creative, sustainable pieces. Imagine, Create, Grow: Helium Inspiring Life Through Art is a project that will support children with lifelong physical health conditions living in Fingal, alongside their families. Designed for those aged 8–12, and in some programme strands up to age 16, the initiative aims to provide creative health support through community workshops, seasonal camps, outpatient paediatric clinics, and online access.
Promotion of Irish Language	Compliance with, and education regarding, the requirements of Irish Language legislation is continuing with regard to Signage, Advertising, Correspondence etc including reporting on our compliance with the bilingual Advertising requirements. Continue to promote the language within the Council and the County with all Press releases available in Irish and the language prominent on social media and in internal communications. The Flavours of Fingal event once again hosted a Pop-up Gaeltacht, providing an informal space during the festival for attendees to chat and relax as Gaeilge

	An Irish Innovation Officer is in place, and comes in response to the expansion of the Gaeilge 365 project backed by the Government. The aim of the initiative is to create best practices through Local Authority services which create enhanced opportunities for the public to speak Irish. Following the success of its inaugural run last year, Fingal will once again be hosting events in the Bronntanas festival this September. Designed to be inclusive, with events that will help parents and children create memories through Irish, family-friendly Irish-language events are being held in a number of locations across the county. The focus is on active, joyful engagement rather than formal lessons, with interactive learning helping people to discover Irish together.
Sports Strategy	Under Commitment 2 of Fingal's Sports Strategy the Sports Office delivered a series of Disability Summer Camps in conjunction with our NGB partners. The series began with a 2-week water sports camp with Howth Yacht club and included 6 different sports and over 200 participants with additional needs. The summer also was an opportunity to target Commitment 4 in the strategy to 'Focus participation in the Outdoors'. This was achieved through their Summer Series of programmes in Fingal's parks and beaches with over 1000 participants involved in over 20 different programmes. The Sports Office flagship event in Malahide Castle involved 'Collaborating with local, regional and national stakeholders' - another key commitment in our strategy with 25 NGBs attracting over 8000 people to the site in early August.
